Last chance to vote in the EDP People's Choice Awards 2018

Celebrate Norfolk's cultural champions and vote in the EDP People's Choice Awards as part of the Norfolk Arts Awards 2018.

Once again there are three categories - best individual, best small organisation or group and best large organisation or group.

Ten nominees have been shortlisted in each group and an online public vote will decide the winners announced at the awards night on October 15.

The Norfolk Arts Awards takes place at Norwich Cathedral as part of the Hostry Festival running from October 13 to 28 with a jam-packed programme of art, theatre and music.

Stash Kirkbride, who co-founded the Norfolk Arts Awards with Peter Beck, said: "The Norfolk Arts Awards is so proud of its association with the EDP, and in particular with the much anticipated EDP People's Choice Awards each year.

"This public voting aspect of the Norfolk Arts Awards serves

THE 2018 NORFOLK ARTS AWARDS

in association with the Eastern Daily Press

so well to ensure the project reaches as many people in the county as possible."

Voting for the EDP People's Choice Awards closes at midnight on Monday September 17 so visit www.edp24.co.uk and click on the 'Norfolk Arts Awards' tag at the top of the website to vote in the poll for the three categories.
